

I am a flight attendant for Alaska airlines , and I am opposed to passengers using their cell phones during flight, out of respect for other passengers , and flight crew that are trying to communicate vital information. It would be chaotic and noisy, and would annoy our passengers .Not to mention , terrorists ability to coordinate a take over more efficiently . Marc loreau